

Friday 16th January 2009 at 7.30 pm

Jubovski (Piano, violin and double bass)

Programme

Haydn: *Gypsy Rondo Piano Trio

Bartok: *Rumanian Dances

Peter Cowdrey: Trio for Violin, Double Bass & Piano
(written for Jubovski)

Monti: *Csardas

Central European Folk Music: including Jewish, Transylvanian, Serbian, Macedonian and others.

Liz Cowdrey (violin), Peter Cowdrey (piano) and Jub (double bass) form this exciting and inspired trio. They bring to their music vitality as colourful and diverse as their individual backgrounds.

Liz is dedicated to spreading the gypsy spirit through violin playing. While in Oxford she was the first student to win three medals from the Associated Board of Royal Schools of Music, gold for violin and bassoon, silver in piano. She has travelled through Eastern Europe studying with the best fiddlers in several folk traditions.

Peter wrote his first five bar composition at the age of three and later went on to win music scholarships to Winchester College and Trinity College, Cambridge. His international experience has taken him from Tonga to Istanbul. As pianist he travelled to South America and this year will be performing with baritone Henry Herford.

Jub's career has covered a wide range of musical styles from traditional to avant garde. Over the years he has worked with many notable international artists and is a founder member of the Adderbury Ensemble in Oxfordshire and the Emerald Ensemble in Bristol.

